wines by the glass...listed From lightest to heaviest sparkling ... spumante

Prosecco NV 'bubbly & exciting' Fumello, Veneto, Italia 8 (4oz) 4 (2oz)
This is a delightful bubbly from the producer Fumello in the Valdobbiadene-Conegliano D.O.C., an area known for its excellent prosecco grapes situated approximately 35 miles north of Venice in the Veneto region of Italy.

white ... bianco

Pinot Grigio 2010 'fresh & light' Oggi, Veneto, Italia 7 (6oz) 4 (3oz)
From the producer Oggi in the Veneto region of Italy this is a delightful change of pace from traditional pinot grigio, with the addition of 5% chardonnay.

Grüner Veltliner 2011 'dry & crisp' Reihnard Waldschutz, Kamptal, Austria 9 (6oz) 5(3oz)
Gruener is one of Austria's native grapes indigenous to this loamy soil. It is hand picked in mid October to showcase the mineral richness of this obscure varietal. It is stainless steel aged 3-5 weeks to ensure precision with every sip.

Sauvignon 2009 'refreshing & fruit-driven' Estimulo, Mendoza, Argentina 8 (6oz) 4 (3oz)
Located in the heart of Argentina wine country this vineyard is known for its high elevation in the foothills of the Andes Mountains. The hand-harvest grapes show beautifully; crispy and refreshing this wine lives up its name "estimulo" Spanish for excitement.

Ribolla Gialla 2010 'airy & lush' Ribolla Gialla 'Dorigo' Friuli, Italia 10 (6oz) 5 (3oz)
Dorigo's Ribolla Gialla, a grape varietal native the hills between Friuli and Slovenia, is always handpicked in mid September only when winemaker Alessio Dorigo gives the order. This expression of is ribolla is aged for 7 months in stainless steel vats in a malolactic-free fermentation.

Est! Est!! Est !!! 2010 'delicate & zesty' Falesco 'Est! Est!! Est!!!' Montecchio, Italia 9 (6oz) 5 (3oz)
A voluptuous blend of Native Central Italian Grapes 60% Trebbiano 30% Malvasia & 10% Roscetto. Legend has it that a German bishop, Johannes Defuk, was on his way to Rome for the coronation of the Emperor. Being a great connoisseur of wines, he sent a runner ahead to scout out the very best local wine and label the taverns door with "Est he fell in love with the wine so much that he returned to Montefiascone after the coronation in Rome and remained there for the rest of his days. In fact, it is said that he died from drinking too much of it!

Chardonnay 2010 'medium & cool' Rivera 'Preludio No. 1' Puglia, Italia 10 (6oz) 5 (3oz)
Puglia, located on Italy's heel, is one of the last places in Italy associated with Chardonnay. The winemaker here, Carlo DeCorato, was revolutionary when he decided to bring Chardonnay and Sauvignon Blanc to this extremely hot and dry region of Italy. However, he planted and watched and analyzed and his efforts paid off when he was able to release this, Preludio No. 1, which took home two out of three glasses at the prestigious Gambero Rosso competition. Preludio represents the Prelude and the first grape variety they begin by harvesting. The wine is refined in stainless steel.

Fiano 2008 'gorgeous & flirtatious' Grotta Del Sole Campania, Italia 10 (6oz) 5 (3oz)
This D.O.C.G Fiano comes from the Mountainous Region of Avellino where it derives its mineral base. This ancient Grape was harvested originally by the Romans where it was known as Apianum "loved by the bees." Present day archeological digs found remnants of a rural villa dating to 1st century b.c where wine was made and sold, appropriate that the same parcel of earth has stayed true to itself over hundreds centuries.

Muscat 2008 'fragrant & sweet' Kogl 'Mea Culpa' Podravje, Slovenia 9 (6oz) 5 (3oz)
A beautiful rich wine from the producer Kogl who sourced the grapes from 2000-year-old vineyards located in Slovenia, a next-door neighbor to Italy's Friuli Venezia Giulia Region in Podravje, who happens to border Austria and Hungary. This varietal is classic still moscato, with more aromatics than sweetness and is a name synonymous with the names 'Muscat a Petits Grains Blancs,' which originally came from Greece and is known in Italy as Moscato Canelli.

rose ... rosato

Rose 2010 'tantalizing & pink' Paul Jaboulet, Parallèle 45, France 9 (6oz) 5 (3oz)
An intricate yet delicate blend of 50% Grenache 40% Cinsault & 10% Syrah. make up this seductive rose. Named for the 45° north Parallel That Runs across Europe less than 2 km from the winery. Perfect for the summer it is light, dry and everything a rose should be.

reds .. rosso

Pinot Noir	2010	'sensual & spicy'	The Deck 'Royal Flush' Central Valle, Chile	9 (6oz) 5 (3oz)
	The vineyards are located in the coolest areas of the Maule region. The alluvial soil has an excellent drainage and moderate fertility that allows keeping the yield controlled. Then it is carefully racked into stainless steel tanks for fermentation. This is a classic expression of pinot noir from Chile, quickly becoming a new player in the game of Pinot Noir.
Sangiovese	2008	'suave & laid-back'	Vignamaggio 'Il Morino' Toscana, Italia	9 (6oz) 5 (3oz)
	This is classic every day drinking sangiovese from vineyards in Tuscany. This winery is experienced and recognized for making world class chianti. The wine is aged in large oak barrels called 'botti' for 8 months. This winery is where the painting "mona Lisa" was painted in Greve in Chianti, Tuscany.
Junior Tuscan	2008	'vibrant & spicy'	Campo Ceni 'Barone Ricasoli' Toscana, Italia	9 (6oz) 5 (3oz)
	Barone Ricasoli is the oldest family owned winery in the world still owned by the same family The family has engrained it in the fabric of Italian history when Bettino Ricasoli became Italy's first Italian Prime Minister playing a vital role in the unification of the country 150 years ago . Campo Ceni called a Toscano Rosso can be considered a young super Tuscan because of the juice blend of 80% Sangiovese 20% Merlot.
Merlot	2005	'juicy & delicious'	Vinakoper, Primorska, Slovenija	9 (6oz) 5 (3oz)
	Primorje is a region of Slovenija that is situated on the border of north-eastern Italy. The area of Koper actually juts out into the Adriatic only miles from the Italian mainland. The area is blessed with a Mediterranean climate, early spring, warm and sunny summers, a short rainy season and dry winds, all of which adds to wines which are generally dry and rich in minerals. Vinakoper is a highly regarded local producer of fine wines founded in 1947.
Ciliegiolo (IGP)	2009	'supple & bright'	Dedalo, Sicilia, Italia	12 (6oz) 6 (3oz)
	This 100% Ciliegiolo comes hand harvested from the Caltanissetta Area of Sicily. Where the vineyards are located was once called Omphake, greek for juice from unripe fruit, a link to the islands rich ancient greek history. Dedalo is aged for 5 months in chestnut barrels that not only adds depth but also a supple reminder that different is beautiful.
Montepulciano	2008	'vivid & melodious'	La Murola, Le Marche, Italia	12 (6oz) 6 (3oz)
	La Murola is a family owned operation for over 200 years. The winery resides on the hillside where cool breezes off the Adriatic cool down the grapes in the evening resulting in controlled slow maturity of the fruit.
Negroamaro	2007	'silky & tight'	Roccamora, 'Schola Sarmenti' Puglia, Italia	10 (6oz) 5(3oz)
	This Earthy varietal flourishes in clay soil. Initially it was used to color lighter wines and add depth to less substantial wines until modern produces were able to capture and harness the beauty of what literally translates to the bitter black. Roccamura's 100% organic interpretation of this seemingly unknown varietal is more floral than what its color and body weight would lead to believe.
Syrah	2007	'peppery & full'	Bisceglia "Amarille" Vulture, Basilicata, Italia	12 (6oz) 6(3oz)
	Bisceglia is an organic winery that has vineyards located on the dormant Mount Vulture in Basilicata, a region of southern Italy next to Calabria and Puglia. This 100% syrah is grown in typical soil of Basilicata, which is comprised of volcanic, limestone, clay and limestone soils. The wine is aged in French oak for 4 months followed by 6 months in bottle.
Malbec	2009	'majestic & passionate'	Familia Cassone 'Florenca,' Argentina	8 (6oz) 4 (3oz)
	One of the original six grapes used in red Bourdeaux, is now the leader and pride of Argentinean winemaking. This thin-skinned and inky varietal soaks up the much-needed sun of Argentina and benefits from the high altitude. Bodega Familia Cassone is a traditional family run winery and the vineyards are located at the foot of the Andes in Perdiel.
Cabernet Sauvignon	2008	'dynamic & powerful'	Steele, Lake County, California	10 (6oz) 5(3oz)
	Cabernet Sauvignon, although born in the great vineyards of Bordeaux, has no better home in the world then in California. While Napa Valley produces some of the best in flavor, the prices are sometimes not the best. Jude Steele produces some of the best Zinfandel from Lake County for the past 40 years and it is no surprise he began with Cabernet Sauvignon. This vineyard is 1000 feet above the lake on the dormant Mt. Konocti volcano.
